114th cadet class to participate in the Chief's run

The Austin Police Department's 114th Cadet Class will be joined by Chief Acevedo at the Texas Peace Officers Memorial on the State Capitol grounds for the Annual Chief's Run beginning at 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 18, 2008.

The traditional cadet run that focuses on unity within the department and community will feature an address to the cadets by Chief Acevedo followed by a walk to the south exit of the Capitol grounds at 11th Street and Congress Avenue.

The cadets along with the Executive Staff and Training Academy personnel will run southbound to the Ann W. Richards Congress Avenue Bridge, and finish at Auditorium Shores.

The cadets will be commissioned during gradation ceremonies on Friday, June 20, 2008 at the Great Hills Baptist Church located at 10500 Jollyville Road.

Media Advisory: Cadets along with APD personnel participating in the event will be available for interviews following the run.
